Australian International Shell Show

See:

- Competition displays with exotic shells not seen in books, on TV, or in museum public displays, and may never see again.

Kids:

- FREE Shells for every child, until run out (Value $10+)

Buy shells:

- Shell dealers from around the world will have something for you. Shells for decorations, for your collection, or craft supplies at a fraction of the prices of souvenir stores and shell shops.
- A session where you can buy from shell collectors.
- Auction of shell books.
- Collect shells and support conservation. Most shells offered by dealers are from very old collections. They are effectively “recycled.”

Learn something:

- Saturday afternoon, guest speakers on shell and marine life.
- Talk to the professionals – dealers, researchers, authors, and collectors from around the world.
- Have your shells identified and valued.
- Find out about your local Shell Club.
- Learn how to identify, clean, and look after shells.
- Learn more about marine conservation.

Miss this show, wait years for the next:

- Over the past 30 years the Australian International Shell Show has only been held in Sydney five times. Don't miss out!
